The Press Enterprise
July 20, 2009

Stop water waste

I find it difficult to feel guilty washing my car or taking six-to-seven minute showers. As I drive around Hemet, San Jacinto and today, Temecula, I see home-supply stores, restaurants and public offices watering in the heat (and wind) in the mid-afternoon.

Does anyone in the water quality and conservation office have the authority to stop this?

LEO DeHAYS
Hemet