

Newspaper Clippings from March 6, 2008 – March 7, 2008

Water district OKs Moreno Valley Skechers distribution center

March 7, 2008 – The Press Enterprise

By Dan Lee

Eastern Municipal Water District has certified that it can serve the proposed Skechers distribution center in eastern Moreno Valley after the developer pledged to save water on one of the company's other projects, an official said Thursday....

2-day search of Hemet-area lake turns up few clues

March 7, 2008 – The Press Enterprise

By Gail Wesson

A Riverside County sheriff's dive team had not found a body after two days of searching near where an unoccupied boat was found on Diamond Valley Lake south of Hemet, an official said....

Flowers Gone Wild

March 7, 2008 – The Press Enterprise

By Bob Pratte

...Valle Vista dweller Diane Mitchell, my chief wildflower correspondent, noted that she has spotted lots of plants ready to bloom. She has been hopeful that the winter of steady, gentle rain followed by sunny weather will create one of the greatest crops of wildflowers ever....