Life Has Variables — So Does Your Water Budget

At EMWD, we believe in personalized service — including water and sewer budgets tailored to your household based on the number of people and landscaped area.

Whether it is adding new landscaping or the number of people in your household changing, EMWD encourages you to update your household information through a variance form at www.emwd.org/water-budget-variances.

By providing us with updated information, we are able to provide you with a water budget that best reflects your needs.
